ELECTIONS-THE NEW CONSTITUTION.-The State Constitution ratified July 6th, 1869, fixes two days on which elections are to be held by the people. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, and members of the General Assembly are to be elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November the Executive Officers and Senate to hold oftice for a term of four years; the House of Delegates for two years.

At the same time (Tuesday after the first Monday in November) all County Officers are to be elected-Sheriff, Commonwealth's Attorney, Clerk of Court, County Treasurer and Overseer of the Poor. These officers enter upon their duties the 1st day of January next succeeding their election, and hold for a term of three years.

On the forth Thursday in May all Township Officers are to be elected, and these will enter on their duties the 1st day of July next succeeding. They are Supervisor, Township Clerk, Collector, Assessor, Road Commissioner, Overseer of Poor, three Justices of the Peace and one Constable.

Also, on the Fourth Thursday in May all City and Town Officers will be elected, such as Mavor, Sergeant, Commonwealth's Attorney, Treasurer, Councilmen, &c., who will enter up- | And Dealer in fine TEAS, WINES, LIQUORS on their duties, the 1st of July succeeding.

Thus it will be seen there are provided two general elections-for Governor, General Assembly, and County Officers, in November; for Township and Town and City Officers, in

All the Judges are to be elected by the Legislature. It is provided that their terms of office shall commence on the 1st day of January next following their appointment; but those first elected under this Constitution are required to discharge the duties of their respective offices from their first appointment and qualification until their terms begin.

THE COLORED SENATOR FROM MISSISSIP Pl .-- A letter from Jackson, Mississippi, gives the subjoined imformation in regard to H. R. Revel, the colored man recently elected to the United States Senate:

He is a tall, portly man, of light complexion, has benevolent features, a pleasant voice, and gentle ways. He is thoroughly respected by his own people, and by the whites. Born in freedom, in North Carolina, in 1822, eraving an education, he removed to Indiana; spent two years at the Quaker Seminary in Union county; entered the Methodist ministry; afterward received further instruction at the Darke County Seminary, when he became preacher, teacher and lecturer among his people in the States of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Missouri. At the breaking out of the war, he was ministering at Baltimore. He assisted in the organization of the first two colored regiments in Maryland and Missouri. Duing a portion of 1863 and 1864 he taught school in St. Louis, then came to Vicksburg, and assisted the Provost Marshal in managing the freedmen affairs; followed on the heels of the army to Jackson; organized churches, and lectured; spent the next two years in Kansas and Missouri, in preaching and lecturing on moral and religious subjects; returned to Mississippi and has been in Natchez ever since.

He is Presiding Elder of his church for the Southern portion of the State, and since July last has served in the City Council.

A METEOR ABOVE THE CLOUDS .- Those who happened to be out of doors so late as I o'clock last night, were treated to an exhibition in the heavens of surpassing brilliancy and beauty. It was the bright flash of a meteor be yound the clouds. The rain had ceased but a few minutes before, and the dark, ominous clouds cleared away, it seemed purposely, and nothing obscured the sky but white mist, which was at some places so thin that you could see an occasional star through it, while again a thick, dark drift would rush along as if racing with one a few paces before it. All of a sudden there was a flash of light, and everybody out of doors must have looked up. There was to be seen one of the most beautiful sights that ever gre ted the gaze of man. It was the flash of a meteor beyond the clouds, and its bright ness reflected on them presented every color of the rainbow, but more variegated and far more brilliant. It was more beautiful than a beautiful sunset. The clouds, some near, some far, presented the appearance of a cavern with overhanging rocks and all lighted up with an effulgent glow that was golden and gloomy by turns. The grand sight lasted but a moment and then was gone. It passed across the sky from south to north-northeast and the darkness opened before and closed quickly its brilliant path. - Louisville Journal.

TADPOLE TO FROG. - The Warren Sentinel thinks that what we will lose or gain by change from a District to a State, will be something like the change of a tadpole to a frog. While he is a taddy, he swims about and has nothing to say, but as soon as the transmigratory process is accomplished, frozgy appears shorn of his postern appendage, and he sets up a croaking to the infinite delight of himself.

STANDARD PERIODICALS FOR 1870.

Republished by the LEONARD SCOTT PUBLISHING CO., New York. Indispensable to all desirous of being well informed on the great subjects of the day.

1. The Edinburgh Review.—This is the oldest of the series. In its main features it still follows in the path marked out by Brougham, Jeffrey, Sydney Smith and Lord Holland, its original founders and first contributors.

2. The London Quarterly Review, which commences its 128th volume with the January number, was set on foot as a rival to the Edinburgh. It resolutely maintains its opposition in politics, and shows equal vigor in its literary department.

ment. 3 The Westminster Review has just closed its 92d volume. In point of literary ability this Review is fast rising to a level with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism.

4. The North British Review, now in its 51st volume, occupies a very high position in periodical literature. Passing beyond the narrow formalism of schools and parties, it appeals to a wider range of sympathies and a higher integrity of conviction.
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine was commenced 52 years ago. Equalling the Quar-terlies in its literary and scientific departments, t has won a wide reputation for the narratives and sketches which enliven its pages.

TERMS FOR 1870.—For any one of the Reviews, $4 per annum; for any two of the Reviews, $7; for any three of the Reviews, $10; for all four of the Reviews, $12; for Blackwood's Magazine, $1; for Blackwood and one Review, $7; for Blackwood and any two of the Reviews, $10; for Blackwood and three of the Reviews, $13; for Blackwood and the four Reviews, $15. Single numbers of a Review, $1; single num bers of Blackwood, 35 cents.

The Reviews are published quarterly; Blackwood's Magazine is monthly. Volumes commence in January.

CLURS .- A discount of twenty per cent will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons when the periodicals are sent to one address.

Postage.—The postage on current subscriptions to any part of the United States is two cents a number, to be prepaid at the office of delivery. For back numbers the postage is largely double. PREMIUMS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS - New subscribers to any of the above periodicals for 1870 will be entitled to receive one of the Four Reviews for 1869. New subscribers to all the five may receive Blackwood or two of the Keviews for 1869, BACK NUMBERS. Subscribers may, by applying early, obtain back sets of the Reviews from January 1865, to December, 1869, and of Blackwood's Magazina from January, 1866, to December, 1869, at half the current subscrip-Neither premiums to subscribers, nor

Indeed, without those the journey through life hereones a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hearly derkens to the view, the much becomes shadowed with despite and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes his intel with your own. DIFFARMS OF IMPERIORNER. When the mergreet final improdest votary of pleasure freds that to has imbibed the societies paintiff these six too often happens that an ill timed sense of shame or droad of discovery deters him from applying to those, we from education and respectability, can also befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of the heard decisionness their appearance, such as observed decision make their appearance, such as observed decision throat, diseased nose, necturnal pains to the head and limbs diseased for the sections of the head and limbs. (Successor to Win Buckinghams) dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the ship bones and arms, bloiches on the head, face and bones and sems, blocked on the dest, factorist capture attenuities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the month of the 12 nd of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid elect of commissers tion, till death puls a period to be dreadful surferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered forms, by sending him to "that Undiscovered forms," Country from whence he traveller returns.'

It is a MELARCHOLY FACT that there sands tall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the makillumers of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MYE CHEY, rum the conditioner and make the resulting of the intervable.
